

Expert Choice Black Belt™ Training Program

Power Knowledge Performance
 May 20-22, 2008 - Arlington, VA

Take your game to a higher level with this advanced practitioner's course. Designed for serious facilitators and decision-makers, the EC Black Belt course builds upon the EC Green Belt™. This course will deepen your knowledge and skills in key areas of collaboration, prioritization and decision-making.

By joining us in Arlington, VA, you will engage in live modeling and facilitation exercises where you will be evaluated by your trainers and peers. Additionally, you will have extensive access to our top consultants to help you work through and model real decision challenges. Lively and engaging, the Expert Choice Black Belt course could very well be the best three days you ever spent in training.

Key Benefits of the EC Black Belt Training Program:

- Advanced modeling concepts
- Comparisons with other methodologies
- Deployment templates, processes and best practices
- Application-specific learning to advance your facilitations
- Significant knowledge transfer to sustain your growth

Module	Description
I. EC Green Belt Refresher	A condensed two-hour refresher of the EC Green Belt course to bring everyone to a common starting point.
II. Advanced Decision-Making Concepts	Take your knowledge of decision-making to a higher plane. This five-hour module covers the nature of decisions, advanced modeling concepts, a deep-dive on the Analytic Hierarchy Process (AHP) methodology and math, and a thorough comparison of AHP with alternative decision-making methods.
III. Advanced Deployment Processes and Techniques	Go beyond basic decision techniques with an advanced process roadmap for making your decisions successful. Based on learnings gleaned from hundreds of deployments, this five-hour module teaches an advanced deployment process that will help you and your team reach the best conclusions quickly while building alignment, buy-in and confidence.
IV. Organizational Decision Management Methodology	Need to role out decision-making enterprise-wide? This three-hour module provides a blue-print for establishing a governance structure, measuring and monitoring performance, and tracking your success along a proprietary decision-making maturity model.
V. Specific Applications	This one-day module provides in-depth knowledge transfer and practice on the most common and challenging application areas, to include: problem solving, strategic planning, portfolio management, vendor selection, trade studies, forecasting, risk assessment, and market research. You will learn best practices in each of these areas, and will be provided with advanced templates to kick start your performance.
